The Mission

The Gallagher Academy has been targeted by a mysterious organization known as the Circle of Cavan. Gabrielle, the newest member of the Gallagher Girls, has a unique ability that makes her the perfect candidate to infiltrate the Circle. However, when she travels back in time to 1942, she quickly realizes that her mission is more complicated than she could have ever imagined.

Gabrielle finds herself in the midst of World War II, where she must navigate the dangers of the past while still completing her mission. Along the way, she meets a young American soldier named Jack, who quickly becomes her ally. Together, they must work together to stop the Circle of Cavan before they can change the course of history.
