Who Is Yeshua, the King Messiah?

According to the Gospel of Matthew, Yeshua is the long-awaited Messiah promised in the Old Testament. He is the Son of God and the Son of Man, the one who would come to save people from their sins.

Matthew's account of Yeshua's birth (Matthew 1-2) emphasizes his divine origin. He is conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of Mary, a virgin. Angels announce his birth, and wise men from the East come to worship him.

Throughout his ministry, Yeshua performed miracles that demonstrated his power and authority. He healed the sick, raised the dead, and cast out demons. These miracles convinced many people that he was indeed the Messiah.

However, Yeshua's teachings were often controversial, and he faced opposition from the religious leaders of his day. He preached a message of love, forgiveness, and humility, which challenged the established order.

Yeshua's Mission and Ministry

Matthew's account of Yeshua's mission focuses on his teaching and his work of redemption.

Yeshua's teachings are recorded in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7) and other discourses. He taught about the kingdom of God, the importance of faith, and the need to love one's neighbor.

Yeshua also spent much of his time healing the sick and casting out demons. These miracles not only demonstrated his power but also revealed his compassion for the suffering.

Ultimately, Yeshua's mission culminated in his death on the cross. He died as a sacrifice for sin, taking upon himself the punishment that we deserved.

Yeshua's Resurrection and Ascension

Matthew's account of Yeshua's death and resurrection is one of the most dramatic and powerful passages in the New Testament.

After being crucified, Yeshua was buried in a tomb. But on the third day, he rose from the dead, conquering death and the grave.

Yeshua's resurrection is the central event in the Christian faith. It is the proof that he is who he claimed to be, the Son of God and the Savior of the world.

After his resurrection, Yeshua appeared to his disciples and commissioned them to spread the gospel to all nations. He then ascended into heaven, where he sits at the right hand of God the Father.
