Characters

Amelia

Amelia is the novel's protagonist, a resilient young woman who has endured years of relentless bullying at Thorn High School. Despite the pain inflicted upon her, Amelia remains strong-willed and determined to overcome her tormentors. Her journey is one of self-discovery, as she learns to embrace her own worth and fight for what she believes in.

Ethan

Ethan, the school's star quarterback and resident bully, is the epitome of power and popularity. However, beneath his tough exterior, Ethan harbors a hidden vulnerability and a yearning for redemption. As his path intertwines with Amelia's, Ethan begins to question his own actions and the consequences of his bullying. His character arc is a testament to the transformative nature of love and the possibility of change.

Plot

The story unfolds as Amelia and Ethan's lives collide. When Amelia's relentless bullying reaches its peak, Ethan unexpectedly steps in to defend her. This act of kindness sparks an unexpected connection between them, challenging their preconceived notions of each other. As they spend more time together, they gradually break down the walls they have built around their hearts.

However, their newfound love is met with resistance from their peers and the remnants of Ethan's past actions. The weight of their past mistakes threatens to tear them apart, forcing them to confront their own demons and the true meaning of forgiveness. Through their shared journey, Amelia and Ethan discover the transformative power of love, reminding readers that even in the darkest of times, redemption is possible.
